Show Managers Report

-Successful show at Triple 3 Farm

Loss of $124.38 (due to only half day of rides and the $700 Farm fee)

Dorie was very complimentary on our show and said she would be happy to come back (next year)

-We now have 9 small horse/ pony riders

-September 7th show (CVEC) now has 7 rides, Beth to create a flyer, push FB advertising, and email blast

-We are going to have Jedd's for lunch

New Business

- Discussion of Pro's and Con's of the Triple 3 Farm show
 - ~Great location, venue was easy to get to, event center had AC and was comfortable
 - ~Not a big enough warm up area
 - ~Activity at Olsen's was distracting
 - ~Some prefer CVEC
 - ~Issue at CVEC main arena has obstacle storage around the arena and could be a problem
- September 7th show needs volunteers, and CVEP needs a hand washing station (Beth to follow up)
- Discussion of having a Bit Clinic, Kim Gentry from Wellington is having a clinic at Bellisima in the valley and she will come to Prescott. Cost for clinic- $125/45 minutes and you ride with snaffle bits to see what works. $175 for Double Bridle 90 minute ride. $225 if you want both the Double Bridle and the snaffle bit ride. October 16th would be the day, a Wednesday. Facility to be determined. A charge of $20/pp to cover facility and insurance was discussed. Up to 10 horses.
- Beth to order Sandwich board signs, motion to buy the signs was passed by the board unanimously.
- Future Agenda Items in September-Website update: on-line entries, and payment options need to be discussed.
- Reminder end of year luncheon is Oct. 26th, 11 am American Ranch. More discussion on that later
